

A Sound and Movement workshop led by Françoise Walot

Linklater Voice London is delighted to announce our next workshop following its re-launch in Autumn 2025. This specialist voice workshop will be led by Françoise Walot, senior Designated Linklater Teacher, director and actor, over two days. Please note that attendance is required for both days.

Dates:

Saturday 7th March from 10 – 4.30pm (with a 1.5 hour lunch); and Sunday 8th March from 10-4pm (with a 1 hour lunch).

Venue: BOLD Elephant, 21 St. Georges Road, Elephant & Castle, SE1 6ES

Cost: Full fee £120/Student fee £95 (payable in advance of the workshop)

The main aim of the Sound and Movement work developed by Kristin Linklater is to deepen the connections between body, breath, voice and speech by bridging the gaps between voice work and the speaking of text.

We will use exercises linking voice and imagery, call and response, colours and the vowels and consonants. The text will be used to observe the changing and evolving connections between voice and speech.

Please email to secure a place or if you have any queries:
linklatervlondon@gmail.com

Françoise Walot trained as an actor at the Liège Conservatoire in Belgium and as a voice coach with Kristin Linklater in the USA. She became a Designated Linklater Teacher in 1993.

Since then, she has taught, performed and directed in Belgium and taught voice and acting at Birmingham Conservatoire, RCSSD, BADA and as head of voice at LAMDA.

She has led numerous voice workshops in England, Belgium, Poland and Greece works with poets and trains voice teachers

LINKLATER VOICE®